Please note:

As of January 1, 2004, the Federal Personal Information Protection and Electronic Document Act (PIPEDA) came into effect. This Act affects all businesses, including not-for-profit organizations.

Subject to some exceptions, personal information cannot be collected, used or disclosed without the individual's knowledge and consent. Personal information is defined as "information about an identifiable individual, but does not include the name, title, business address or phone number of an employee of an organization."

The PROBUS Club generally does not ask for private information and most certainly does not publish anything subject to this Act such as health, financial information, marital status, etc.

The PROBUS Club does, on request, distribute a membership list to its members including name, address, phone number, and email address. If you do not wish to have this information included, please omit it from this form.
